A Musical Canine Critic.

A wonderful story of a French musical critic is related by persons who profess to have been acquainted with him and to have seen him in attendance on musical performances. He was a dog, and his name in public was Parole. Whether he had a different name at home was never known. He is fond of riding on the shoulders of his masters, and is known for his skill and expertise in the law.

A really polite Frenchman can be complimentary in the face of unkind remarks. Such a man, who had been bestowing upon a lady many compliments, asked her why she kept a large and apparently savage dog which had just entered the room. "I bought him only yesterday," she answered flippantly, "and I am going to keep him in my front hall to eat up my admirers."

IT WAS PETRIFIED.

Too Much For a Young Man at the World's Fair. It was a meek, mild mannered youth that stood behind the exhibit of petrified wood. There was a look of agony on his face that seemed born of fright. A visitor approached the exhibit, and the face of the mild mannered young man grew ashen pale.

"Is this petrified wood?" asked the visitor. "Yes, sir, that is petrified wood," the attendant replied. "Is this petrified wood?" asked the visitor. "Yes, sir, that is petrified wood," the attendant replied. "Is this petrified wood?" asked the visitor. "Yes, sir, that is petrified wood," the attendant replied.

THE VEILED WOMAN NEAR BY.

A story illustrating the foolishness of talking in public. Mr. Snodgrass stepped into a bus one day and was heartily greeted by his friend Mr. Fleming, a cynical old bachelor. Snodgrass invited Fleming to dine with him. The only other passenger in the bus was a lady closely veiled.

"Do you see that fashionably dressed lady at the other end of the bus?" remarked Fleming. "What about her?" "She has a lovely good figure, but I expect it's padded," replied Snodgrass. "Don't she remind you of a savage?" "Bliss me, no. How?" "The savage," said Fleming, looking at the lady in the corner, "looks fiery and loud colors. Then, again, a savage paints his face—so does this woman."

GEMS IN VERSE.

What's the use of saying, "I'm a poet," if you can't say it in verse? Here are some gems in verse. "I'm a poet," said a man, "and I can say it in verse. I'm a poet," said a man, "and I can say it in verse. I'm a poet," said a man, "and I can say it in verse."

Of the American Union Party. For the promotion of the best interests of all the people of the Hawaiian Islands, and for the organization of a party having only the objects of the following principles adopted as a declaration of the principles upon which the organization to be known as the "American Union Party" is to be established, and upon this platform we invite the co-operation of every friend of good government.

1st. REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.—The American Union Party is unalterably opposed to any form of monarchical government in the Hawaiian Islands, and declares its full allegiance to the Provisional Government, endorsing the proposal for a constitutional convention looking to the extension of popular representation in the Government.

2d. PUBLIC LANDS.—We favor such legislation as will promote the occupation of the public lands, including those heretofore known as "crown lands," by small holders, and foster the development of varied industries, leaving it to be of vital importance that "many acres" should be for "many men."

3d. CITIZEN'S RIGHTS.—We declare that all citizens are equal before the law, and we are opposed to monopolies or privileged classes, favoring participation in the government by every loyal citizen, and declare for a liberal suffrage that will, first of all, guarantee a vote to every man who rendered satisfactory service in the military or police departments of the Provisional Government.

4th. IMMIGRATION.—The evils of Asiatic immigration are so apparent that we declare in favor of its prohibition by restrictive and prudent methods, declaring in favor of such American, Portuguese, or other European immigration as shall supply the necessary labor and furnish the country with permanent settlers.

5th. PUBLIC OFFICES.—We hold that no person should occupy any position of trust or profit under the government who is not loyal to the same.

6th. PRISON LABOR.—We oppose the employment of prison labor in any mechanical pursuits.

7th. TAX SYSTEM.—We favor a revision of the tax system whereby all property, improved and unimproved, shall be taxed on an equitable basis.

STAR.

This word by itself looks lone-some. So did the "Lone Star" of Texas, but it got there all the same, and is now a member of the brightest constellation old Mother Earth has ever known. The "Lone Star" of Hawaii will get there, and don't you forget it. There are two or three kinds of "Stars" but those we are looking out for are the "Annexation Star" and the WEEKLY STAR.
